Northwestern State University is committed to making a positive difference in the lives of its students. While in college, you gain knowledge, learn skills and make friends that can shape the remainder of your life. The faculty and staff at NSU work each day to create an environment in which students can achieve their fullest potential and be prepared for the challenges of the 21st century.

Northwestern is proud to boast of 100% national accreditation in all applicable degree programs and is accredited by the Commission on College of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. NSU is a friendly, vibrant student-oriented institution that is in the words of one alumnus, “large enough to serve you, but small enough to know you.” NSU has a long history of academic excellence, dating back to 1884. Today NSU offers degrees in more than 50 areas, each offering a mix of the classroom training and practical experience needed for students to get a job after graduation.
